

INNOVISIONS

CONSULTING • COACHING • TRAINING • FACILITATION

DIVERSITY MATTERS

Implicit Bias, Cultural Effectiveness & Inclusion

OBJECTIVES

Participants will have an opportunity to increase their understanding and/or abilities related to:

- Recognizing the difference between diversity, inclusion and equity
- The impact of structural and implicit biases
- Working effectively across differences
- Fostering a culture of inclusion and equity

Lead Facilitator Sheryl White, Psy.D.

Dr. Sheryl White is one of the nation's leading cultural psychologist and organization development specialist. She is the Vice President of Training and Organization Development and General Manager of InnoVisions at the Neighborhood House Association in San Diego, CA. Dr. White brings over 25 years of experience to her work performance. She is an expert at helping leaders develop a desirable culture and brand identity. Dr. White is also exceptional at helping leaders to hone interpersonal, cultural and leadership competencies necessary to successfully inspire, influence and lead strategic and culture transformation initiatives.

Dr. White, a Board Certified Coach, has served since 1999 as an executive coach and facilitator with the Center for Creative Leadership (CCL). For the second year in a row, CCL ranks in the top 5 overall in Financial Times worldwide survey on executive education. Since 1999, Dr. White has also served as a core adjunct professor at National University. She holds a bachelor's degree in psychology, master's degree in counseling, and a master's and doctor of psychology degree in culture and human behavior. Dr. White is passionate about helping people work better, and better together for the betterment of humanity.

For more information: swhite@neighborhoodhouse.org | 619-453-8093